

Shinsei Bank announces move of the Kobe Branch

Tokyo (Friday, July 27, 2001) --- Shinsei Bank, Limited (“Shinsei Bank”) today announced that its Kobe Branch would move to Sannomiya, Chuo-ku, in Kobe city from July 30.

The new location will be the very convenient place to where takes only a few minutes by walking from Motomachi Station in the JR line. Following the head office and Hibiya Branch in Tokyo, Kobe Branch will become the third retail spot of Shinsei Financial Center, which is the Bank’s new-style retail outlet. Kobe Branch will focus on individual customers by providing a various services such as 24 hour 365 day available ATMs.

By providing further convenient services, Shinsei Bank aims to invite new customers to the renewed branch in addition to existing customers.

New location of Kobe Branch:

3-7-6, Sannomiya-cho, Chuo-ku, Kobe-shi, Hyogo 650-0021